"I'm going to take a sentimental journey --" yes, in the words of the song, "I'm going to take a sentimental journey home." Likewise the staff of The Log is going to take you on a sentimental journey where you will relive the ballgames, remember the assemblies and dances, and pay homage to our conductors, the long-suffering teachers. So come aboard; the train is ready to start; and we're off!

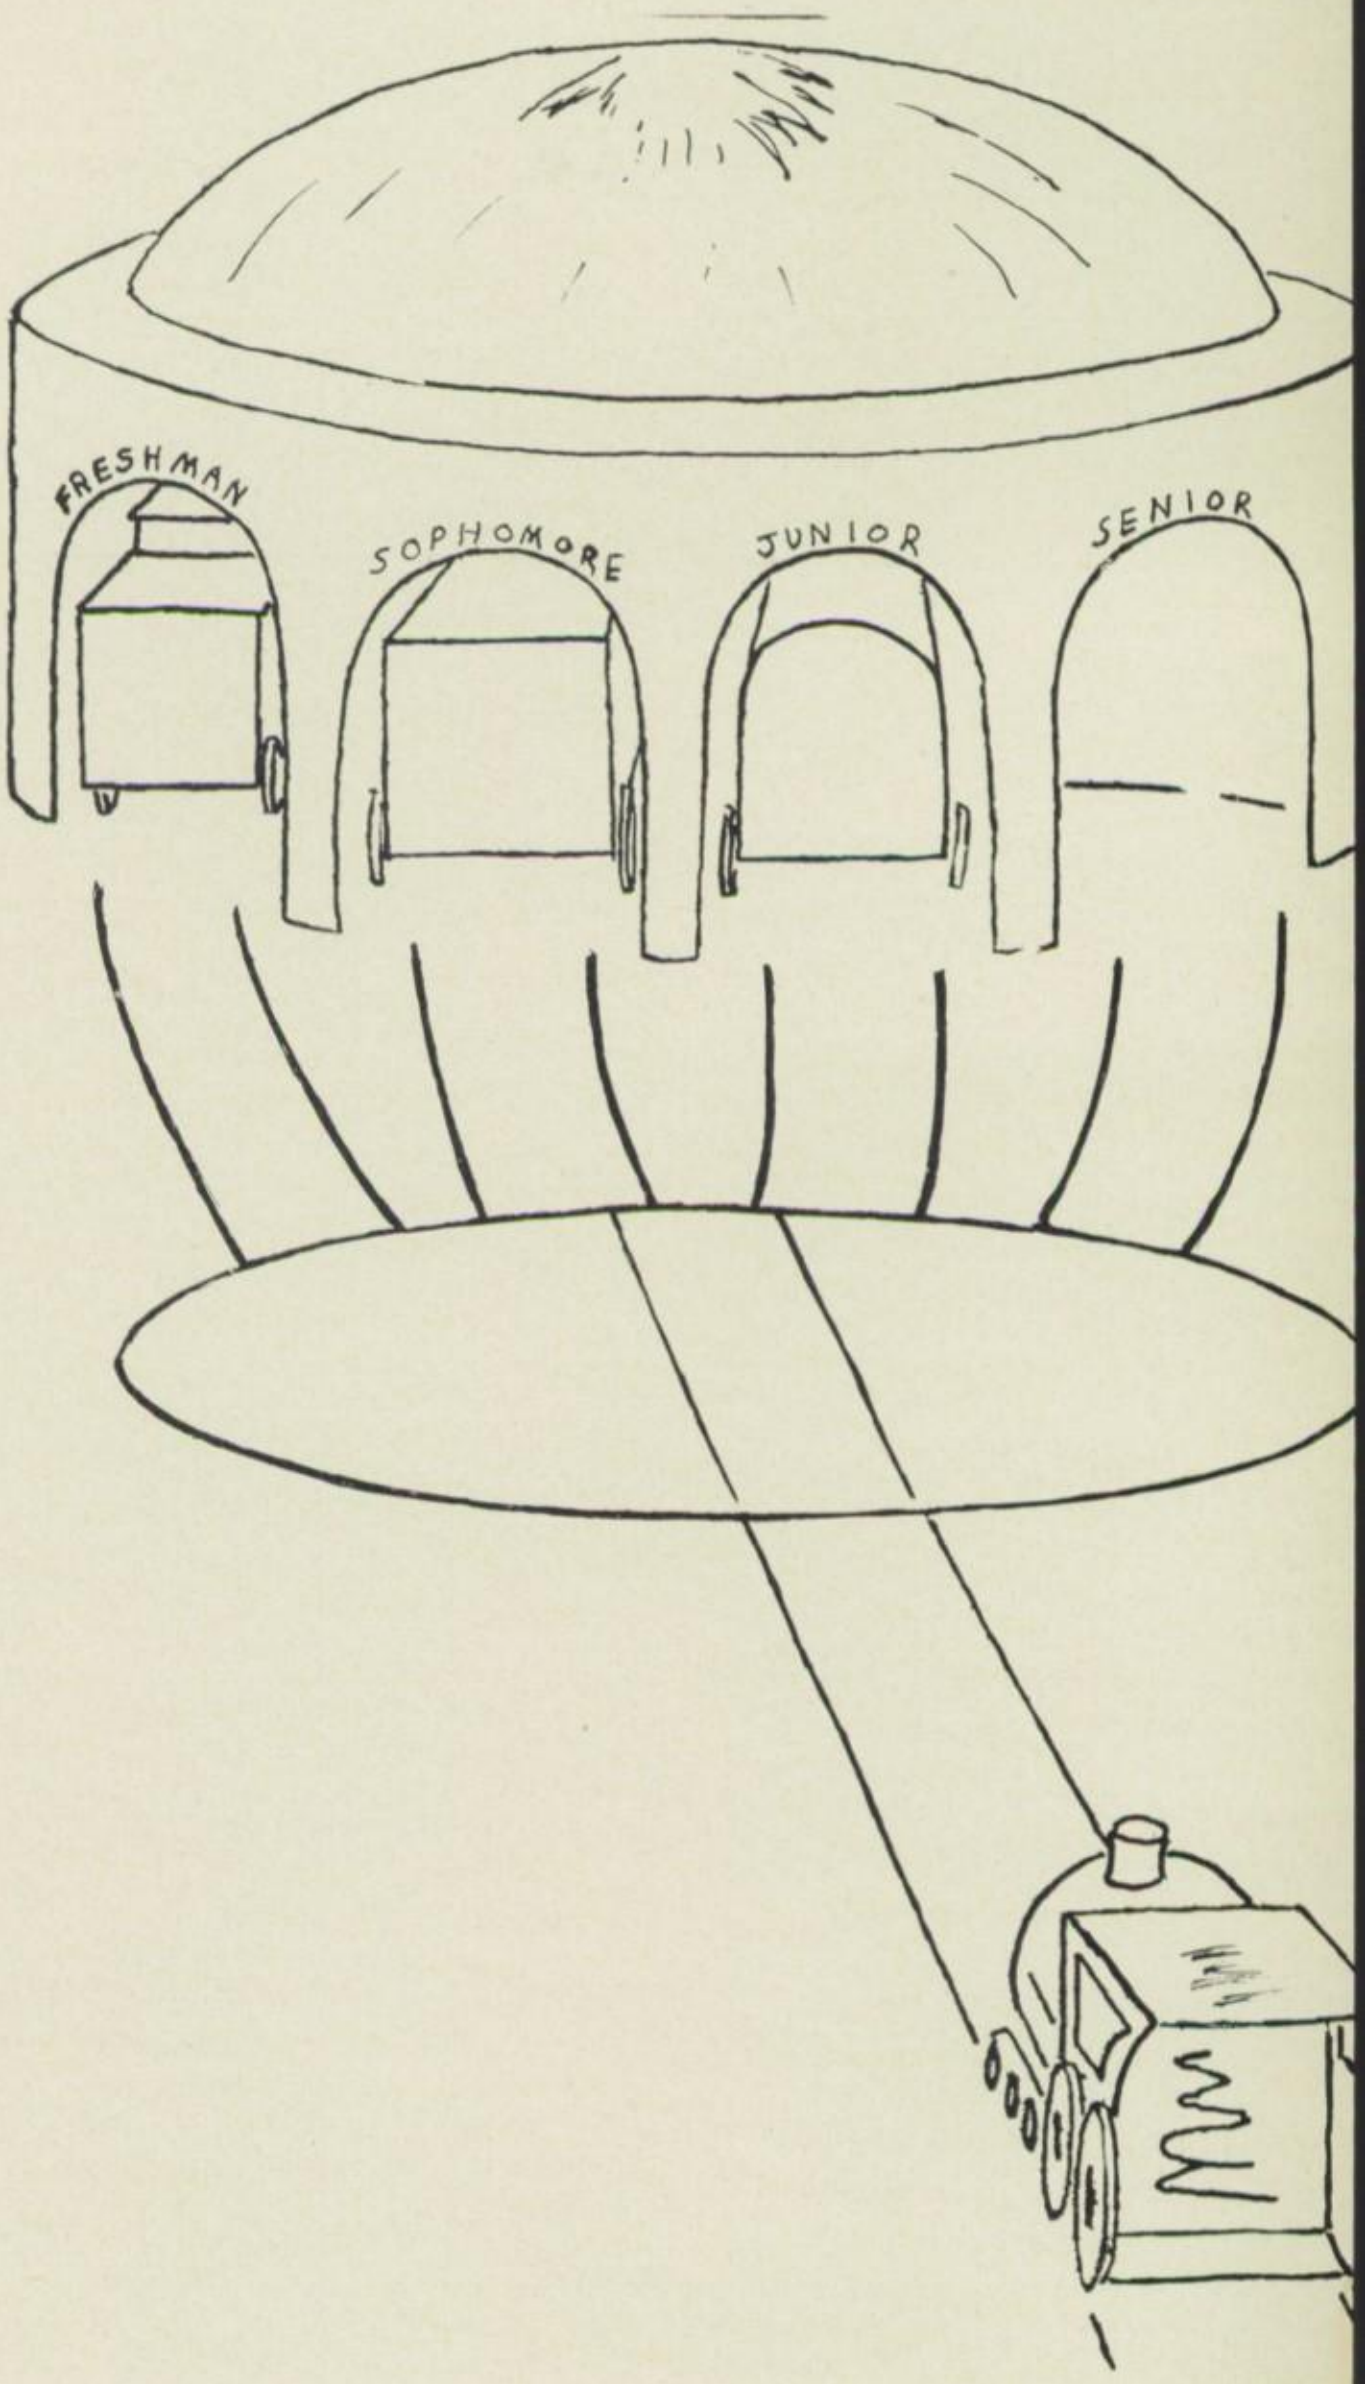
LET'S TAKE A JOURNEY AROUND THE BUILDING



Let's continue our journey and visit the classrooms - those battle-scarred survivors of many an eraser-battle, many a test, and many an exam.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

The present Junior Class is very unique in that it was created especially for the present sixteen numbers. Because of initiating the twelve-grade system, this was the year for our school not to have a junior class. However, along the way, some transfer students from twelve-grade systems entered our school; also, there were several among us who had failed to pass all required subjects; thus--a junior class became a necessity. As there wasn't a vacant class room in school, one of the dressing rooms by the stage became our homeroom--a snug fit but very convenient to the auditorium and out-of-doors!

After organizing our class, we realized that our first undertaking was to add approximately $400.00 to our otherwise depleted treasury in order to give a creditable dance to our seniors. With this project in mind and excellent cooperation from the class, we had our first money-making project on October 6th--a Sock Hop, from which we cleared $65.00. In February, we were hosts to a Valentine Dance, which proved to be quite a profitable affair. Still--we needed more money! The seniors became a bit uneasy for fear we wouldn't entertain them, so the senior boys challenged the junior boys to a benefit basketball game--the proceeds to go to the junior class. With more of a feeling of financial security, plans for the Junior-Senior became a reality. The theme, "Romance of Spring," was chosen, Bill Johnson's dance band from Suffolk was engaged and the Cypress Cove Country Club was secured for the occasion. Through the courtesy of the Club's Board of Directors, we were given permission to rent the club. Our class is too small to undertake to beautify our gym with decorations, so we particularly wanted to have our dance in a building that was already pretty without decorations.

All class members worked during their vacant periods on miniature bird houses to use on individual tables. Much fun was had making these spring-like decorations. Doubtlessly, every junior will want one as a memento of the occasion.

Because our class is different and the only one of its kind in the history of our school, everyone has been most helpful and interested in making the usual activities possible for us. As this goes to press, our enthusiasm is at great heights and we're determined to make our Junior-Senior a fine one to remember in spite of the small number to sponsor it. Also, we have the determination to make our senior year equally as exciting and successful--the first twelfth grade to graduate from Franklin High School.

HONOR COUNCIL

Jimmy Rhodes, Greta Fowler, Paul Larsh, President; Walter Gray, Robert Powers.

Our Student Government is known as the Student Senate. It is composed of two representatives from each class; the presidents of the junior and senior classes; and the president, the vice-president, and the secretary of the Senate, who are elected by the student body. The president of the eighth grade is also included in the Senate, but he may not vote.

The Honor Council, composed of one elected member from each class who also serves in the Senate, is the school court which tries any cases of breaches of honor that arise in the student body. The vice-president of the Senate has a dual role in that he acts as president of the Honor Council. The decisions of the Honor Council are, of course, subject to the approval of the principal.

The Senate makes minor decisions concerning school life, which are also subject to the principal's approval. Acting as a go-between for the students and the principal is another job of the Senate, and it plays a part in directing school activities.

Thus, as our school year

And er --- only one

Searching for the research.

Hope we all measured up to graduation.
